One of Bali's most popular falls, Gitgit is easily accessible from the road that connects Bedugal and Singaraja. After an easy trek over a small gorge and cascading streams, you'll quickly find the 40m falls, with crystal clear water flowing into the pool below. A small shrine welcomes explorers to the site. Enjoy the morning listening to the cascading water, snapping photos, or taking a plunge into the cool waters.

ULUN DANU BERATAN TEMPLE

Sitting at the western edge of the Beratan Lake, is the "Floating Temple," the Ulun Danu. It is a sacred Hindu temple built in the 17th century for the goddess of the lake, Danu, and it is one of Bali's most iconic temples and sites. The towering temple and pagodas, surrounded by cool, still waters of the lake and backdrop of greenery and hillsides combine to create one of the most photographed sites on the island. Later proceed for Tanah Lot Temple.
